To Whom It May Concern,

It is both a pleasure and a privilege to write this character reference for Adrian Krieg.

Adrian has been painting my properties for me for over eight years. He is a very reliable and trustworthy young man who has always displayed a maturity which is well ahead of his years.

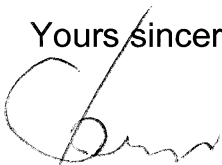

Adrian's particular attributes include a capacity for logical thinking and a dedication to provide a commitment to quality service.

I have always known him to be thorough and diligent. He shows patience and perseverance with both his work in general and attention to detail.

In addition, Adrian has a bright and cheerful personality, a delightful sense of humour and excellent communication skills. He is particularly sensitive to the needs of his customers and always displays a caring and thoughtful attitude.

I would be happy to further discuss any aspect of Adrian's character and ability.

Yours sincerely

Allan Breakwell
